Quotes From The News

By UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL

WASHINGTON — Charles E. Osgood, one of two psychologists who testified on U.S. policy in Viet Nam before the Senate foreign relations committee:

"I do not believe it is psychologically feasible to escalate the intensity of attack upon an opponent with one hand while simultaneously noising out an olive branch in the other. An opponent can be bombed into surrender, or even into non-existence, but he cannot be bombed into honest negotiations."

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. — Detective Herb Pugmire, commenting on the high intelligence of a group of high school boys who burglarized chemicals and textbooks to set up their own laboratory for the manufacture of LSD:

"A spoke to one boy and it was like taking a statement from Einstein himself. The way he talks, his language—it's not my language."

TERRYVILLE, Conn. — Albert Bunn, who kidnapped a six-year-old boy, explaining his refusal to surrender to police moments before he was killed in a gun battle with officers:

"The National Guard are after me."

WASHINGTON — Rep. Wright Patman, D-Tex., commenting on a news photo of J. Lee Deane, member of the Federal Reserve Board, wearing the cape in an amateur bullfight in Spain, with board chairman William McNamara Martin Jr. in Deane's audience:

"Many of us are disturbed over the fact that these people placed bullfighting above the importance of arriving at a solution to the problems of the American economy."

A Bible Thought For Today

Ye shall not steal, neither deal falsely, neither lie one to another. —Leviticus 19:11.

Often people who would never consider stealing or lying to another individual think nothing of lying before the law or of the land or stealing from a large corporation. Lying and stealing are always wrong.

The Almanac

by United Press International

Today is Thursday, May 26, the 146th day of 1966 with 219 to follow.

The moon is between its new phase and first quarter.

The morning star is Venus and Saturn.

The evening star is Jupiter.

At noon was born on this day in 1895.

On this day in history:

In 1868, President Andrew Johnson was acquitted of impeachment charges by one vote.

In 1945, American 239's hit Tokyo with 4,000 tons of fire bombs.

In 1894, more than 100 crew members on the aircraft carrier Bennington died as an explosion second the huge ship off the coast of Rhode Island.

In 1894, India's Prime Minister Nehru died at the age of 74.

A thought for the day — English poet Robert Browning wrote:

"So absolutely good a truth . . . truth never hurts the teller."

Leon Wagner Gets Well On Detroit

By JEFF MEYERS

UPI Sports Writer

Leon Wagner is taking out his frustrations on the Detroit Tigers. Wagner, critical of Cleveland Manager Birdie Tebbets for not playing him every day, was in the starting lineup again Wednesday night and delivered a two-run homer plus two singles as the Indians exploded for 18 hits to whip the Tigers 13-2.

"The last awful frustration," Wagner said before the Detroit game, "I can't figure out why I'm being platooned. Everybody knows we need power in the lineup and that's my kind of game."

Tebbetts also started Wagner, in the two previous Detroit games and the 33-year-old outfielder responded with three hits including a home run and two more RBIs. Wagner, who hit 28 homers last season, has connected only three times this season but two have been against the Tigers.

Elsewhere in the junior circuit, Chicago edged Baltimore 3-2. New York walloped California 11-4. Kansas City stopped Washington 3-1 and Houston nipped Boston 7-5 in 10 innings.

NL Games

In the National League, Los Angeles edged Philadelphia 2-1. Houston topped New York 7-1. Cincinnati edged Atlanta 6-4. St. Louis drubbed Chicago 8-1, and Pittsburgh shaded San Francisco 3-2.

Del Crandall also homered for the Indians and Chico Salmon pitched in with four singles. Crandall, Vic Davalillo and Wagner each contributed three hits in support of young Tom Kelley, who relieved the ailing Sam McDowell in the second inning and won his second game without a setback. McDowell was forced to leave the game with a slight shoulder strain.

Hall Homers

Jimmie Hall walloped a two-run homer in the 10th inning off Boston reliever Dick Radatz that enabled the Twins to snap a five-game losing skid. Harmon Killebrew put the Twins ahead 5-1 in the seventh with a two-run homer but Boston rallied with a pair of runs in both the seventh and ninth inning. Minnesota pitcher Jim Kaat's singles in the second and sixth produced two runs.

Steve Barber's balk in the seventh inning permitted John Romano to score from third base with what proved to be the winning run. The White Sox scored two runs in that inning on two singles, a stolen base, an error and the balk. Romano accounted for Chicago's other run with his fourth homer of the season.

Brooks Robinson moved into second place in the league batting race with two singles to raise his average to .340, 31 points behind Minnesota's Tony Oliva. Robinson

Income Tax

Questions-Answers

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q — What are some of the things that could delay a refund?

A — There are several major reasons for refund delays. One is that the return might be selected for examination before the refund is issued. A second is that insufficient or inaccurate information is supplied with the return by the taxpayer. Typical examples of this are missing W-2 forms, schedules, signatures and omitted or incorrect Social Security numbers.

While it may be little consolation to argue who has a refund delayed for any of these reasons, most of the properly prepared claims for refunds are processed and the refund checks are mailed within six to eight weeks after the return is received. Delays occur in a very small percentage of the total refunds requested.

Q — Last year our garden club had a card party to raise funds and had to collect a 10 percent admission tax on the tickets. Do we have to collect this tax again for this year's party?

A — No. This tax was repealed at the end of last year and is no longer applicable.

Q — We just moved here from out of state. I want to ask about my refund which hasn't arrived. Where should I write, to my old district where I filed my return or to the one that serves me now?

A — Please wait until the end of June for your refund before writing. It is more likely that you will have received it by then. A letter now will only add to the workload of our people who are trying to get the refunds out.

If your refund has not arrived by then, write to the office where you filed your return. Include your Social Security number in the letter.

In the meantime, be sure to file a change of address form with the postmaster at your old address.

Q — We are selling our house. What records should we keep for tax purposes?

A — Records showing the price you received for the house as well as the expenses you incurred in making the sale should be kept. Records of advertising costs, brokers' commission and legal fees that were incurred because of the sale should be kept to verify the "selling expenses" that will be deducted from the sales price.

Records of the original cost of the property to you, including commissions and the cost of improvements should be kept so that you will be able to verify your cost basis of the sold property. If you buy another house, similar records on that purchase should be kept. There is a complete discussion of this subject in 1966 Document No. 507, "Selling Your Home," available by writing to the District Director.

Nicholson Struck Out In The Majors But Blooms In Texas

By JOE GERGEN

UPI Sports Writer

Dave Nicholson, who struck himself clear out of the American League, has struck it rich in Texas.

The 26-year-old Nicholson, a one-time $100,000 bonus baby with the Baltimore Orioles, earned the dubious nickname of "Swish" for his failure to get even a piece of the ball in unsuccessful trials with the Orioles and Chicago White Sox.

After five seasons in the junior circuit, distinguished only by the establishment of four major strike-out marks, Nicholson was shipped to Houston last December and appeared headed for oblivion.

But Grady Hatton, manager of the Astros, had a plan to get the most out of Nicholson's largely untapped talent. He decided to platoon the 215-pound strong boy against left-handed pitching and hope that he could supply the punch that had been missing in the Houston attack.

"I think he's going to help us a little," Hatton said. "He might help us just a whole lot more than a little—he might even develop into a real big man."

Batted Average

Nicholson has done just that this season. A lifetime .203 hitter, he raised his 1966 batting average to .233 Wednesday night when he went 4-for-4, including a home run, to power the Astros past the New York Mets 7-1 and to within 2 1/2 games of first-place San Francisco.

The Astros were beaten by Pittsburgh 3-2 in the National League's only day game. Elsewhere under the lights, Cincinnati routed Atlanta 6-2, St. Louis slugged Chicago 9-1 and Los Angeles edged Philadelphia 2-1.

Cleveland crushed Detroit 13-2 in the AL's feature game. New York throttled California 11-6. Minnesota mauled Boston 7-5 in 10 innings. Chicago clipped Baltimore 3-2 and Kansas City whipped Washington 3-1.

Nicholson collected a double and two singles in addition to his third homer of the season, drove in two runs and scored a pair. In 76 at bats this season, the 6-foot-2 Nicholson has amassed 42 total bases for a slugging percentage of .560 compared to the club record of .470 set last year by Jimmy Wynn.

Nicholson has cut down noticeably on those strikeouts and certainly is in no danger of approaching the major league standard of 175 which he set in 1963.

Bateman Homers

Catcher John Bateman also had a perfect night 3-for-3, including a homer, as Larry Dierker moved down the Mets on five hits for his second victory of the season and first complete game. He struck out eight.

Former Giants Matty Alou and Manny Mota socked third-inning homers to pace the Pirates. Alou, with two hits in four trips, took over the NL lead in hitting with a .363 mark. One point behind at .351 was Willie McCovey, whose two solo homers accounted for the only Giants runs. The victory went to Don Schwall while Bob Shaw suffered his fourth defeat.

The Reds took the lead with two unearned runs on two consecutive errors by Atlanta second baseman Woody Woodward in the sixth inning en route to their triumph over the Braves. Milt Pappas won his fourth straight game, striking out seven and allowing only five hits.

Curt Flood's grand slam home run capped a seven-run seventh inning explosion by the Cards which erased Nelson Briles to post his first victory. Briles yielded a homer to Adolfo Phillips on the first push of the game but settled down to strike out nine Cubs in the seven innings he worked. Don Dennis got the save.

Wes Parker drove in a pair of runs with a two-out, bases-loaded single in the ninth which saddled Philadelphia's Chris Short with his fourth loss in eight decisions. Short, who had not lost a game in Los Angeles since 1962, had blanked the Dodgers on six hits through eight innings and driven in the only Phillies' run with a bases-loaded single off winner Don Drysdale in the second.

Vending Company, 1805 College Farm Road, was also going west on the same road and did not see the Jones' car making the turn and hit the Ford in the rear end, according to the Police.

Payne received a cut on the head and Miss Jones had a hurt neck, as reported by the Police.

Later at 3:50 p.m. Wednesday the same two patrolmen investigated an accident on Hamilton Avenue.

Ronnie Wayne Sappington, 1201 Main Street, driving a 1964 Cadillac four door sedan owned by Paul Sappington, was backing out of the driveway at 1603 Hamilton, backed across the street, and struck the 1965 Plymouth two door hard-top owned by Eddie L. Youngblood, 117 South First Street, Mayfield, in the left door and front fender, according to the Police.
The Youngblood car was parked on Hamilton headed west at the time of the collision.
The City Police also issued a citation for reckless driving on Wednesday, according to Chief Brent Manning.

Barkley State Boys Hold Graduation

Barkley State Boys' Camp, Oil Springs, Kentucky, held its eighth grade graduation exercises last week at Bob's Smorgasbord.

Diplomas were presented to the boys by their teacher, Coy Garrett, Pal Howard, Marshall County Junior, spoke of the achievements of various deprived people who found themselves and solved their problems. He complimented the graduating class and encouraged all the boys to take advantage of the help being offered to them.

Next on the program were three boys from camp who entertained by playing guitars and singing. The highlight of the occasion was the group of citizens who sponsored the "buddy type" dinner. Each citizen selected a boy from camp, sat with him, and paid for the dinner. After dinner the boy was taken bowling at the Gateway Lanes. Paul Dotson, Manager, made special prices for the event. The citizens suggested that they try to get some guitars donated to the camp.

A special thanks should be given to Mr. Coy Garrett, teacher at the camp school, for organizing and spearheading the program; and to Marvin M. Mohler, co-chairman of the camp's citizen committee, for promoting the attendance of the group, a spokesman said. The group represented the Kiwanis, Rotary, Lions Clubs, and the Churches of Hazel, Kentucky.

TASSIE HASSLE
LOUISVILLE, Ky. — A local go-go girl was told Wednesday that tassies constitute acceptable above-the-waist garb for a nightclub dancer. Police Court Judge William G. Colson, dismissing disorderly conduct charges against Sandra Jean Cambs, said her outfit would have been improper on the street, but it was all right in a nightclub.

CHEVELLE SS 396: A 325-hp Turbo-Jet V8, that is. Along with stiffer springs and shocks, a floor-mounted shift, a bulging hood and a jet-black grille, it's all standard equipment, SS 396wise. And if 325 hp sounds too mild, there are 360- and 375-hp versions of same readily available. So this month do yourself and your Chevrolet dealer a favor: ask him to conjure up a Chevelle SS 396 for you. There's nothing either of you would like better.

Mrs. Max Brandon Installed As Lone Oak Club President

Mrs. Max Brandon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Ashcraft of Murray, was installed as president of the Lone Oak Junior Woman's Club at the meeting held Monday evening.

The officers were installed by Mrs. C. C. Lowry of Murray, president of the Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Brandon is a kindergarten teacher living at 126 Lakewood Drive, Paducah, and succeeds Mrs. H. K. Stewart.

Other officers are Mrs. Ned Buchanan, first vice; Mrs. Dan McNutt, second vice; Mrs. Ed Hutz, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Gene Howie, recording secretary; Mrs. Knute Hughes, treasurer.

Mrs. Lowry spoke on "Your role in the Community" and said you can be a good clubwoman only if you assume a role in community service. Points listed by Mrs. Lowry were no one can live alone, you as a complex woman are an unusual individual, most mental and emotional illness are among women who give herself only to her family, and any place you live you owe a debt.

The Murray woman said education, emotional maturity and spiritual maturity were three needs for better citizenship.

Mrs. Ashcraft of Murray was a guest for the installation meeting.

Happiness Not the Same for All

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: What is wrong with a woman who will let a man walk all over her? My neighbor has married the same man TWICE. They are divorced now, and like a fool, she is considering marrying him again. They don't have any children to stay together for. She doesn't need a man to support her as she makes more than he does.

He treats her like dirt. If you can tell me what she needs this good for nothing, arrogant, two-time-for, you are a genius.

DEAR ONE: I can't tell you, but you can take my word for it, she needs him for something. Even if it's only to "punish" her. To each his own. Some people's idea of happiness is having something to "suffer" for. It's a pathological quirk.

DEAR ABBY: I haven't a love problem, but I want to know the answer to something that has been bothering me. My son recently married a woman who was married before and had a child by her first husband. My husband legally adopted the little girl. Now, that child isn't really my grand-daughter, is she?

She already has two grandmothers as her mother's mother is still living and so is her real father's mother. So if she already has two grandmothers, where do I fit in? I don't get it.

WHAT AM I?

DEAR WHAT: When your son adopted the child, he became a father, and you became a grandmother.

DEAR ABBY: What is your opinion of a person who is constantly correcting others in public about the pronunciation of words and their use? All involved in this situation are adults. Thank you.

DEAR CORRECTED: The constant corrector is showing his ignorance. It is infinitely more important to be kind than correct.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "MAKING THE BEST OF IT": If you can't bring yourself to discuss such an intimate problem with your doctor, clergyman or a marriage counselor, run, do not walk, to your nearest book store and get "A DOCTOR SPEAKS ON SEXUAL EXPRESSION IN MARRIAGE," by D. W. Hastings, M. D. (Little, Brown, publishers).

Putting prohibitions aside, this straight-talking psychiatrist says in 155 pages of plain English what every married couple should know.

Decisions Are Needed As End School Year

By DAVID NYDICK
UPI Education Specialist

The end-of-the school year, which is nearly upon us, requires a variety of decisions and actions by both parents and students. In some cases the answers are simple but a number of situations require careful consideration and planning.

Should your child attend summer school or participate in any form of educational activity? There is no single answer. It depends on the individual child's needs, attitudes, family plans, and the availability of a proper program. Remember that, traditionally, the summer is a vacation period. Many individuals look forward to this time when they can relax from the pressures of academic work. Students could find the learning process quite distasteful on a hot summer day when his friends are outside swimming.

On the other hand, a student might enjoy pursuing a subject in which he has particular interest. He might also be high motivated to make up a course which he failed in order that he graduate with his regular classmates.

There are many different circumstances which should be carefully reviewed before a decision is made. Perhaps a combination of academic work and recreation is possible. Some reasonable period should be planned for a vacation preferably with the entire family.

Should a child's summer be fully structured? The answer is no. This doesn't mean that complete freedom is desirable. Children can be creative and entertain themselves for long periods of time but they can also become bored. This leads to problems. When children are bored they look for new activities and thrills. This is when they get into trouble. The seriousness of the trouble depends on their age.

Parents can help avoid boredom by planning a variety of activities. They should include a combination of group and individual activities, trips to museums and other places of interest, swimming and camping, and any other available activities. These might be considered.

UNDERTURED—Actress Joan Caulfield talks on the phone outside court in Santa Monica, Calif., after winning a divorce from her dentist husband, Dr. Robert Peterson. She testified that he couldn't provide for the family much of the time because his office hours were increasingly infrequent. They were married Nov. 24, 1959, and separated last April 7. They have a 4-year-old boy.

of structured forms of recreation. They can be very pleasantly mixed with time for the child to relax and entertain himself. It is desirable to plan five or six main events which should be spread over the summer.

Any plans for the summer should be carefully developed by the parents and children. The highly scheduled lives which children lead during the school year should not be continued during the summer. Children need time to be children. They need time to develop their bodies and physical skills. Too often they do not have this opportunity during the winter months. Parents should remember that a child's development includes physical and social as well as mental growth. Plan accordingly.

BLUE NOTE—Singer Bobby Darin, 29, and actress Sandra Dee, 22, shown in happier days, have separated, said a spokesman at studio in Hollywood. He said Darin has left their home.

Movie On Safety Belts Seen By 4-H

A movie stressing the importance of safety belts was shown at the Carter School 4-H Club meeting held Wednesday, May 18.

The president, Billy Flora, called the meeting to order. Marla Fielder led the pledge to the Flag and Libby Sims led the 4-H pledge. Julie Brunner gave the devotion.

Margaret Anderson called the roll and gave the secretary's report. The county 4-H rally for June 3 was announced.

Plans were discussed for a picnic with Margaret Anderson, Beth Wilson, Paul Holland, and Ronnie Billington appointed to plan the activities.

A game was played and the meeting was adjourned.
